

Rupali Joshi <rupalihjoshi@gmail.com>

SIC Membership + 2015 DIWALI

Spokane India community <spokaneindiacomunity@gmail.com>
Bcc: rupalihjoshi@gmail.com

Thu, Oct 15, 2015 at 1:37 PM

Note: Due to some server issues several emails bounced back. Hence, we are resending the email about SIC Membership and Diwali (combined information) again. If you have already received the earlier email or are aware of the below information then please ignore this email. Thanks.

Dear All,

Thanks for the warm and energetic response to the membership drive. We have set ourselves a very ambitious goal of formally registering at least 50 families as SIC members and we are going to need active participation from every community member to give ourselves a realistic chance of attaining it. We still have a long way to go, but we are convinced that if we keep up the pace we will get there by the end of this week. So please continue posting about your membership on FB and challenging your friends via FB or in person by phone.

On a separate note, after a month of hard but fun work we are super excited to announce the first official SIC event. Please visit the SIC website at <http://www.spokaneindiacomunity.org/#!events/xm3fq>

Also, below information is for those you missed this announcement on Facebook:

We are very pleased to announce that Spokane India Community is now formally registered as a non-profit organization with the state of Washington. Thus far this has been an exciting experience for everyone involved to go from a loosely connected community to a registered organization that also has a cyber footprint. We believe that we are now at a very critical juncture of this initiative and where we go from here depends entirely upon how each and every individual from our small community gets involved with Spokane India Community. SIC will gain strength and stability via it's members, volunteers and friendships it helps forge. As a first step in that direction, we would like to invite everyone to formally become a member by paying an annual (Sept. 2015- Sept. 2016) membership fee of $10 per family. This nominal fee will help SIC cover basic administrative costs such as website, registration etc. and also help build a small cash reserve to cushion cost overruns during organised events. Note that the nature and scale of any organised event will directly depend upon the membership strength of SIC.

Please make $10 checks payable to "Spokane India Community" and mail them to Mr. Jayesh Modha (Treasurer SIC), [REDACTED ADDRESS].

Or

Make an online payment through PayPal. Please use the "family and friends" option while making a payment to help avoid transaction charges to SIC. The email id to send money to is spokaneindiacomunity@gmail.com

Regards,

Spokane India Community